About NAIW

- Here you will locate tools to assist a new potential member by providing a list of the many Benefits of Membership
- Under Join Now you'll find quick links to the electronic membership form and details about the different memberships available. It also gives you directions on where to find a local association or how to start a new one.
- You will find a complete listing of the NAIW Structure from International to local including helpful links for more details.
- NAIW History provides a snapshot of how we were founded and by who.
- Interested in placing in ad in any of our publications or programs? Advertising Opportunities is where you would go for pricing and more.

Education and Training

- Course Offerings provides links to CE courses, professional courses, 30 minute courses (great for meetings!) and the I Can series.
- Designations is where you will find the details on obtaining your CPIW/M and DAE Designations as well as the applications for both.
- A complete list of NAIW (International) Scholarships and links to all the applications is provided under Scholarships.

Corporate Partnerships

- Under Corporate Partnerships you can obtain information on who is and how to become a corporate partner as well as view NAIW's current list of partners

Online Store

- Want to do some shopping? Looking for NAIW logo items? Jewelry? Educational courses? Certificates? And more! One stop shopping – it couldn't be easier! Visit the Online Store.

Conventions & Meetings

- Locate dates, times and places for Annual, Regional & State Council conventions and meetings.
- You can register online or print the forms.
- Sponsors and exhibitor info is here and how to become one as well.
- Info on International/Regional/Local events found here as well when applicable.

For Members

- This section contains the heart and soul of the website for anyone in or interested in a leadership role within NAIW or a new member looking for information. We will spend the next few slides reviewing this section in more detail.

For Members cont...

- As you can see from the menu – there are many options available to you from search options to membership rosters (helpful when you need to know how many members are in your association).
- The executive offers page is found in the members section.
- Forms in alphabetical order to assist you from A-Z.
- Annual Reports, Board Summaries (By Law changes etc... can be found here), NAIW Publications, and Leadership & Marketing Materials.
- Inurement! What exactly is inurement? The answer to that difficult to determine question is here.
